

Reducing aflatoxins in Brazil nut production

Validate and transfer to stakeholders a sustainable and effective safety management system for reducing and controlling aflatoxin occurrence along the Brazil nut production chain, as a means to recover and consolidate market access, particularly in the European Union (EU).

A dedicated project website can be found here.

STDF/PG/114

Status

Completed

Start Date

01/06/2006

Project Value (US$)

$826,219

STDF Contribution (US$)

$619,664

Beneficiaries

Brazil

Implementing Entities

Centre de Coopération Internationale en Recherche Agronomique pour le Développement (CIRAD), France

Partners

Brazilian Enterprise for Agricultural Research (EMBRAPA)

Ministry of Agriculture, Livestock and Supply (MAPA) of Brazil